EAST FIRST ST., (In with Yates)

—Two weeks from today is the last of May.

—I. D. Appleford is in Freeport on business.

—Miss Lizzie Ankeny of West Dixon is on the sick list.

—The Lutheran synod of Northern Ill. meet at Lanark today.

—Teal Swarthout, of Paw Paw was on our streets this morning.

—E. C. Race Senate, K. A. E. O., meets tomorrow night for work.

—Fred Mittenbuhler returned today to his duties at the World's Fair.

—Edward C. Underwood and J. F. Criswell, of Sterling, are in town today.

—Miss Louise Boeckmeyer of Lansing, Iowa, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Rice.

—Charlie Hatch was called to Rochelle this morning to put shoes on horses for Jack Suter.

—Mrs. Mallory, of 411 Peoria avenue entertains married lady friends at 5 o'clock tea this afternoon.

—W. M. Anderson, representing H. W. Hill Co., wholesale stationers of Decatur, is in our city on business.

—Miss Sadie O'Malia, book-keeper at the Riverside Shoe Factory, is visiting relatives and friends in Princeton.

—Miss Lola Wingert goes to Sterling today to attend the wedding of Miss Nellie Overhulzer and Mr. Ross Hull this evening.

—Mr. Leland, the Dement-town baker put a new bakery wagon on the road this morning. He makes a specialty of home made bread.

—Smith & McKenney closed a contract yesterday with A. S. Dimick for placing throughout his residence the Thayer hot water system of heating.

—Western towns are all fishing for factories. Fishing is good in Dixon. We have a paper mill and a piano factory on the hooks and will land them presently.

—Rev. W. H. Hartman is in Lanark in attendance at the Central Conference of the Northern Illinois Synod of Lutherans. Before returning home he will visit relatives in Eleroy.

—The remains of Robert Downey were shipped by undertaker Gonnerman on the 3:45 a. m. passenger to his parents' home in Ohio Station, where the funeral was held this forenoon from the Catholic church.

—There is great demand in Chicago for young girls and the big dailies are carrying many advertisements for light work for girls. The Chicago Protective Association for women sends a warning to be ware of such advertisements. They eminate from the houses of ill-fame and other disreputable places.

—Little Charlie Bodwell, down near Parsons, Kansas, had a narrow escape from drowning recently, so his mother, Mrs. E. A. Bodwell, writes to the grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rink. The little fellow, while fishing, fell into the water from a raft and had gone down for the last time when a companion reached out a pole, to which Charlie clung until pulled in.

—The pleasant good feeling between doctors of our neighboring city, Sterling, was proven by two of their number being joined in wedlock. Dr. Frank Keefer and Dr. Jane Reid were married Monday evening. The ceremony was delayed a couple of hours by professional visits that they were called upon to make early in the evening. The bride was formerly a school teacher in Amboy and is well-known in Lee county.

—Jacob Schweinfurth, the bogus Jesus of Rockford, has so far consented to mingle with sinners in mundane things that he has placed in training a black pacer for this season's campaign. Well, things have changed if the divine representative of Jehovah—the incarnation of Christ—becomes the patron of the race track. Perhaps he thinks that being endowed with wisdom from on high, he can sweep the turf with his little black pacer.

—THE TELEGRAPH don't see that there is in the joke on a Palmyra lady and her new Spring bonnet anything so very strange. What if she did buy a "hat" and march out of the store bareheaded and not discover the mistake until after prominading the street quite a distance? Is it not a fact that there is so little to a bonnet that it is immaterial whether it is on or off the head, so far as the matter of covering is concerned.

—O. D. Brewer, of Decatur, the other day found a curiosity in the way of an egg in his poultry yard. It was laid by one of his hens, that is certain, because there was nothing else of the fowl kind in the yard. The egg was about the size of a goose egg. The shell was very thin and broke on being picked up. The white and yolk were all right and inside the yolk was another egg with shell as perfect as an ordinary egg and about the usual size.

—Amboy township possesses $100,000 worth of Chicago and Rock River Railroad bonds. She can now, and could years ago, realize $5,000 on them. We are credibly informed that if the mortgage on said company is closed this coming year, as it is very liable to be the town cannot realize a cent on these bonds. The above being true, would it not be best for us to make sure of the last named sum Think it over and talk it up and let us act.—Amboy News.

—A very interesting program will be given at College Chapel at the piano recital given by Miss May Maxwell, assisted by the college orchestra, mandolin club, etc. Following are the numbers on the program this evening:

—The relay bicycle run from Springfield to Madison will start at Springfield on the 26th inst., and will reach Sterling the following day. H. H. Scovell will make his trip from Polo to Forreston, accompanied by Will Trien.

—Let every young man avail himself of the opportunity afforded next Thursday evening of attending the free lecture, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., to be given by Prof. E. H. Pratt, M. D., of Chicago. The lecturer is a classmate of Dr. Blackman, in response to whose invertation he comes to give an earnest talk on "Personal Purity;" touching some of the laws of nature and their abuses, with helpful suggestions to young men. The lecture will be given at the Lutheran Church, to men only.

—Will Governor Altgeld and his Democratic legislature have the kindness to inform the people of Illinois just what they have gained by their investigations at the Joliet penitentiary? The "dear people," you know, are very anxious to learn just how much rascality has been unearthed, how many ex-prison offi cials have been discovered who have swindled the state, how much honor the leaders in the investigation have gained for themselves and how much capital for their party, and above all, how much the investigation has cost the tax-payers. If our great reform governor will issue a bulletin, setting forth these things, the people will be greatly obliged.

—While in a facetious mood a writer in an exchange perpetrated the following: Somebody says that a wagon maker who has been dumb for years picked up a hub and spoke. Yes and a blind carpenter on the same day reached out for a plain and saw, and a deaf sheep ranchman went out with his dog and herd and a noseless fisherman caught a barrel of herring and smelt, and a defunct hatter was tenderly deposited on a pile of hair and felt, and a forty ton elephant inserted his trunk into a grate and flue. Yes, and a dog walked off with his coat and pants, and a bedbug listend to the bed tick, and so on ad infinitum.

Stub Ends of Thought.

A rose bud is nature's thought; the full bloom its expression.

Do the right thing first, and reason about it afterwards.

There will be music in the heart always if you touch the right strings.

There's more true religion in giving sixteen ounces to the pound than there is in giving $1,000 towards building a fine church.

One touch of money makes the whole world grin.

Satan would rather have one beautiful woman work for him than ten thousand men.

INFERNAL INHUMANITY.

We have received a marked copy of the official organ of the Massachusetts Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals with an appeal to the editorial fraternity of the country to use its pen against the proposed inhuman cowboys' race from Nebraska to Chicago, in which hundreds of horses are to be relentlessly driven to death or crippled for life to contribute to the infamous sport of their riders and for the pecuniary emolument of the two biggest brutes. We copy and endorse the words of the Chicago Journal of last evening on this disagreeable piece of proposed inhumanity:

"President Angell of the American Humane Education Society is right when he denounces the 'proposed terrible horse race' of some 300 cowboys from Chadron, Neb., to Chicago, which is to start June 25.

"There is nothing elevating, nothing beneficial, nothing even excusable in this sort of cruelty to animals. The spirit which prompts it has no redeeming feature and is simply an exhibition of unadulterated brutality. For this sort of alleged sport no humane man or woman can have anything but unqualified condemnation. It is imbruting in its effects upon the men who engage in it, and ruinous to the animals that are forced to be its victims, and demoralizing to the youth of the country who witness it.

"The 300 or more cowboys who are preparing to torture their animals in order to win the purses of $1,500 and $500, which have been offered as premiums up on the most successful cruelty, are enemies to the highest principles in our christian civilization. Human kindness has come to be generally regarded as the distinguishing feature of all that makes for good in human life; its very name, humanity, is a rebuke to the inhuman wretches who thus violate the one potent force which has raised us above savagery.

"This race of over 700 miles, is to be run under the heat of a summer sun, and only two horses are to be allowed each rider. It may delight a certain grade of intellect to see animals thus tortured night and day under whip and spur to gratify the ambition or the greed of a lot of heartless riders, but it certainly is not an edifying or enobling spectacle, or one that ought to be witnessed by the better element of the country without hisses and cries of shame."

has often wasted time and material in trying to obtain a shade of color, and has even resorted to the use of ready mixed paints, the ingredients of which he knew nothing, because of the difficulty in making a shade of color with white lead. This waste can be avoided by the use of National Lead Company's

Pure White Lead Tinting Colors

These tints are a combination of perfectly pure colors, put up in small cans, and prepared so that one pound will tint 25 pounds of Strictly Pure White Lead to the shade shown on the can. By this means you will have the best paint in the world, because made of the best materials—

Will Open World's Fair Gates on Sunday,

COMMISSION OR NO COMMISSION,

And Refund Uncle Sam His Two Millions—Details of the Directory's Action, Adopted with But Two Dissenting Votes—Norway Dedicates a Building—The Editors Begin Their Work—Proceedings of the Women's Gatherings.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The directors of the World's Columbian exposition have decided to abrogate their contract with congress by which they bound themselves to close the fair on Sunday in consideration of an appropriation of $2,500,000. The money will be returned to the government, and hereafter the fair will be opened Sundays. This course was decided upon at a special meeting of the directors. Most of the directors were dissatisfied with the plan adopted at their previous meeting, by which it was proposed to open the grounds Sundays while closing all buildings containing exhibits. This latter action was practically unanimous, but two directors out of thirty-six voting against the proposition.

Must Have the Fair Open.

By the terms of the resolution adopted the Machinery hall will be closed down on Sunday, but in every other respect the fair will be open in all departments (except possibly the government building) the same as on secular days. But $1,939,120 of the appropriation originally made by congress has been turned over to the exposition company and this amount is to be returned to the national treasury after the debts of the exposition have been paid. A rule embodying these points will be submitted to the national commission for approval. What action this body will take is problematical, as a mere working quorum of the members is at present in the city. In any event it is the evident purpose of the local directors to open the fair Sundays, even at the expense of a rupture with the national body.

Spiking Some Sabbatarian Guns.

The price of admission on Sunday is 50 cents, the same as charged during the weeks. Sabbatarians are disarmed of their most effective arguments against a seven-day fair by several clauses in the rules adopted. One of these provides for holding religious services at the park each Sunday in Choral and Festival halls. Eminent preachers will be invited to conduct the services. Choral hall seats about 7,000 persons and Music hall perhaps 2,500. More important, however, than this condition are those relating to the operation of machinery and the working of employes on Sunday. The rule declares that the machinerp shall be stopped and that no employes except those actually needed to protect the property and perserve the public peace shall do any work on Sunday and that those employes who work on that day shall be given a day of rest during the week.

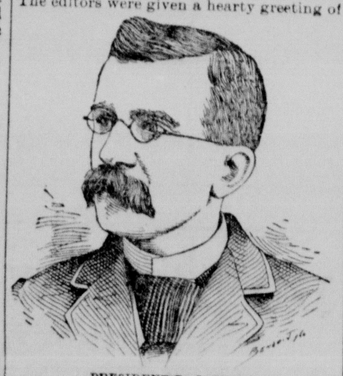

Norway's Building Dedicated.

This morning the Norway building was dedicated. At 9 o'clock a procession formed at Scandia hall, on Ohio street and marched to the fair grounds and to the building. Royal Commissioner General Charles Ravn made a short address, which was followed by Norwegian music. The following officials were present: Charles Ravn, royal commissioner general; Annas C. R. Berle, secretary royal commission; S. A. Buch, commissioner of fish and fisheries; Otto Sinding, commissioner of fine arts; Torolf Prytz, commissioner of manufactures; N. Kjelland, architect to the royal commission. I. K. Boyesen, chairman local committee; O. A. Thorp, secretary committee. After the exercises the party dispersed and spent the remainder of the day visiting the various departments of the fair, giving special attention to Norway's exhibits, which are very complete.

EDITORS GET TO THEIR WORK.

Opening Proceedings of the National Editorial Association.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The 1,000 or more editors who have been flocking to the city for the last few days to attend the ninth annual convention of the National Editorial association, have held their first formal session in the parlors of the Hotel Mecca. The editors were given a hearty greeting of welcome from the World's Fair authorities, the city government and the local branch of the association, and responses were made by Governor Peck, of Wisconsin, and Byron J. Price, national president. The Glee club of the state university of Wisconsin furnished the music for the occasion.

Major M. P. Handy made one of his characteristic speeches welcoming the editors for the World's fair authorities. He said he had met them all at least by correspondence, and then he referred to the services rendered to the fair by the press of the country. J. W. Scott, of the Chicago Herald, was introduced as president of the American Publishers' association. Mr. Scott said he was not sure but that the country press was more powerful than that of the cities. He said he was of the opinion that the country press was in favor of an open fair on Sunday, not with the machinery in motion, but with the grounds open to the public. Those who wished could cover their exhibits. This sentiment received vigorous applause from the audience.

Governor Peck made a few remarks, the annual address was delivered by G. C. Matthews, editor of the Memphis Appeal-Avalanche, and then Past President Cappeller, of Mansfield, O., presented to President Price a gavel. Mr. Cappeller's speech was a felicitous one. He reminded the association of their visit to the Dutch Flat and Gold Run mines, where they saw gold taken from the earth and refined—in fact, all the various mining processes. The product of all the processes, a bar of pure gold, was presented to the association, and at his suggestion that gold was worked into the gavel, which was made wholly of California products.

Mr. Cappeller described the emblem of authority. The head was made of manzanita wood. A gold band encircles the center, having that fact inscribed. Upon a band around one end is an inscription stating that the gold of which the band is made was taken from the Gold Run mines, May 23, 1892. Upon a band around the other end is "Presented to the President, W. S. Cappeller, in Trust for that Body [the association], by Messrs. Gould and Doolittle, on Behalf of the State Miners' Association." The handle is of orange wood, with two bands, one bearing the inscription: "A drop of ink makes millions think," and the other "An honest newspaper is the noblest work of man."

LADIES BY THE THOUSAND.

They Put in a Busy Day Discussing Many Important Subjects.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Half a dozen rival meetings were on the menu card of the woman's congress. Under the wide roof of the Art palace they all found suitable quarters. Thousands of women attended the different sections of the congress, and the devotees of almost every special line of work found a programme prepared to their taste. Wrapped in heavy cloaks the delegates seemed prepared to encounter Chicago's changeable weather. Most of the women preferred to visit in the warm corridors and reception room on the main floor. The disciples of dress reform were omnipresent, headed by May Wright Sewall, of Indianapolis. Susan B. Anthony was another figure constantly followed by hundreds of eyes. The arrival of the countess of Aberdeen was greeted with an informal reception.

The two large meetings in Columbus and Washington halls were centers of general interest. Here discussions embracing the whole range of woman's development were in progress most of the day. Among the department congresses the most interesting was that at which dress reform was discussed and exemplified. The other halls scattered around the building contained audience small in number and devoted to narrower fields of work. Many of the delegates tried to divide their attention equally and make a round of the attractions. Shortly after noon the business of the session was completed and the separate audiences merged into a great reception in the corridors on the main floor.

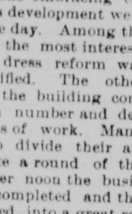

There was an illustration of the "ruling passion" when May Wright Sewall appeared on the platform of Washington hall to call the meeting to order. Instantly avery eye was turned in her direction. She wore a short-skirted reform costume! And many were the remarks, criticisms and comments that costume provoked. At the meeting in Columbus hall most of the papers were devoted to the struggles of Englishwomen to gain political liberty. Among the well-known women present in these two halls were Charlotte Emerson Brown, Margaret F. Parker, Julia Holmes Smith, Susan B. Anthony and Emily Howard Stowe.

MRS. HOWE

While the main meetings were in session a number of report congresses were called to order in different parts of the building. In hall No. 6 Julia Ward Howe presided over a congress called to consider the advancement of woman. In hall No. 29 Mary Frost Ormsby called to order a congress composed of women's societies. The organizations represented here were the International Board of Women's Christian association, Woman's Franchise of England, Woman's Auxiliary Keeley League of Illinois, the National Democratic Influence club and the Women's Trade League club of England. About 100 women gathered in hall eight to attend the congress in the interest of Young Women's Christian associations.

Mrs. Lucy Stone, of Boston, spoke of the advance of the bloomer and dress reform in general. The report of the committee for the promotion of physical culture and correct dress was read by Mrs. Rachel Foster Avery, who was compelled to stand on a table to satisfy the feminine curiosity about her costume. This was followed by a review of the work of the society by Frances M. Steele. Then Mrs. Henrietta Russell talked on "Line and Color in Costume—How Beauty Makes Reform Possible." Mrs. Sewall introduced on Mrs. Russell's retirement Mme. Hanai Karony, of Persia, who told of the inroad fashion was making in her land. She was followed by Annie Jenness Miller and Octavia Bates.

LUCY STONE.

No speech-making was indulged in during the afternoon in any part of the building. The World's Fair was the principal attraction. Lillie Devereaux Blake, of New York, read a paper in the afternoon before the congress in the Woman's building at the fair. The subject was "Our Forgotten Foremothers," but the attendance was not large on account of the sessions in the down town art palace. The night sessions began at 7:45 o'clock in the palace. In the hall of Columbus Mrs. Mary Putnam Jacobi, of New York, spoke on "Woman in Science;" Augusta Cooper Bristol, of New Jersey, on "Woman the New Factor in Industrial Economics." In the hall of Washington, Julia Ward Howe, of Massachusetts, and Kate Tupper Galpin, of California, spoke. Hall No. 7 was devoted to the Order of the Eastern Star.

Report congresses were held in halls 6 and 29. Ten societies were represented in these halls whose objects ranged from anti Lutherans are preparing a grand reception to Rt. Rev. H. K. G. Van Scheele, Lutheran bishop of Visty, Sweden, who is coming to visit the fair. He is expected here today.

An entertainment was given at Central Music hall on behalf of the Irish village at the fair. There was music by the young Irish women who reside in the village and a speech by Lady Aberdeen in behalf of Irish feminine industries. Mayor Harrison presided and many prominent citizens were present.

General Secretary Baer, of the Y. P. S. C., Boston, has telegraphed President Higinbotham that millions will boycott the fair if it is opened on Sunday.

Twenty-three Laplanders with dogs, reindeer, and sledges have arrived at New York en route to the fair.

One World's Fair Closing Opinion.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Attorney General Olney has rendered an opinion in which he holds that the laws of congress providing for the World's fair prohibit the opening of the branch postoffice located in the postoffice department exhibit on Sundays. In accordance with this opinion the postoffices and other government exhibits will probably be closed on Sundays.

Press Clubs to Have a Convention.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The eastern delegates to the convention of the International League of Press Clubs, to be held at St. Paul, Minn., May 18 to 21, have started from the Grand Central station. A stop of a few hours will be made in Chicago, and St. Paul will be reached tomorrow morning. The party will go to the World's fair after the convention.

LANSING, Mich., May 17.—Creditors of the Lansing Lumber company, whose recent embarrassment caused the closing of two banks in this city, held a meeting in this city and listened to a report of the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the company. The amount of its assets was reported at $873,032, and its liabilities $461,163. The company will issue five year bonds drawing 6 per cent. interest and will endeavor to meet all its obligation. Paper amounting to $280,000, upon which Hon. O. M. Barnes is endorser was made preferred indebtedness.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The score record of the League base ball clubs is as follows: At Chicago—Pittsburg 2, Chicago 3; at St. Louis—Cincinnati 9, St. Louis 6; at Boston—New York 1, Boston 10; other games postponed—bad weather.

ABBREVIATED TELEGRAMS.

Pallister and Roehle, two desperate murderers imprisoned in Sing Sing penitentiary, escaped about a month ago—a feat in itself very notable. A week ago Roehle's body was found in the Hudson river with a bullet hole in the head, and now Pallister has been found, also in the river and with a bullet hole in the head.

George H. Abbott, alias Frank L. Almy, the dastard and miscreant who shot to death Christie Warner, at Hanover, N. H., has, after an absurdly long lease of life given him by the merciful courts—the atrocity was committed in July, 1891—been strangled by the sheriff. He was a thief and villain from the time he was fourteen, and capped the climax of his villainy when he shot a young girl because she wouldn't marry him.

KANSAS OUTLAWRY

Wipes Out a Town by the Use of the Torch.

REVENGE THE OBJECT OF THE CRIME

A Band of Land Leaguers Pays an Old Debt in a Dastardly Manner—The Town Fired in Five Places and But a Few Houses Left Standing—Revival of a Gang That Was Thought Suppressed—Two Boys Found Poisoned.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., May 17.—The village of Hepler, Crawford county, a town of 800 inhabitants, has been burned by the outlaw band known as the Land League of Allen, Crawford, and Bourbon counties. The flames were started in five places simultaneously, and only an occasional business house is standing. The burning was an act of revenge for the imprisonment in the penitentiary of several of its members a few years ago. The object of the league was the protection of its members from the usurpation of land by the railroads and new settlers, and it was thought to have been overcome after years of strife and murders.

TWO BOYS FOUND DEAD.

With Every Evidence of Having Been Poisoned with Strychnine.

MINOT, N. D., May 17.—The bodies of two sons of Hans Hanson, a farmer on Des Lacs river above this place, have been found with every indication that they had been poisoned. The youngest was lying on his back in a shallow pool of water. The other was found about 500 feet away, lying face downward, with his hands tightly clinched above his head. He had apparently been taken violently ill.

The grass around him was beaten down and every indication pointed to the fact that he died a most violent death. From appearances the conclusion was reached that the boys met their death from poisoning by strychnine, though by whom administered is a mystery.

Lively Battle With Tramps.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 17.—Detectives Smith and Darr were sent out to disperse a gang of tramps in the extreme north part of the city. They encountered eight of the gentry and a lively battle ensued, in which all hands emptied their revolvers. One tramp was severely wounded, but was rescued by his comrades. The officers captured J. J. Wilson and he is now in custody. Officer Starr hearing the shots ran to help the detectives. He was met by several of the tramps, who got the drop on him and relieved him of his revolver and handcuffs.

Notable Meeting of Churchmen.

LONDON, May 17.—The archbishop of Canterbury officiated at the choral sacrament in St. Paul's cathedral. The spectacle was one of remarkable impressiveness, as a striking procession of bishops, deans and other clergymen, members of the convocation of the province of Canterbury, in the robes of their sacred offices, traversed the nave of the cathedral, chanting the words of the service, which was intoned as introductory to the great meeting of English churches in Albert hall to protest against the Welsh suspensory bill, as threatening the existence of the established church.

Threaten to Stop Work by Force.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 17.—The grievance committee of the Teamsters and Shovelers' Union has issued a general call for all the members of the union, numbering over 3,000, to demand eight hours as a day's work at ten hours' pay or to strike. Fifty men of the gang at work on Monument place refused to obey the call of the union. The others attempted intimidation, but were prevented. The fight will be concentrated at Monument place, and the union claims it will have 2,000 men to prevent the progress of the work. Several assaults have been made, but no one has been badly hurt. The men want $1.65 for eight hours, and the bosses offer $1.50 for eight hours or $1.75 for ten.

Dropped Dead in the Street.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 17.—A. Abromet, an insurance man, stopped to chat with friends who were chaffing him over his candidacy for collector of customs at this port. He turned away with a laugh, and as he crossed the street he fell dead of apoplexy, striking full length on the sidewalk. The deceased was a prominent German, and the father of Miss Anna L. Abromet, a well-known singer.

Cornelius Herz Makes Threats.

PARIS, May 17.—The Gaulois declares that Cornelius Herz has written to the government that unless the demand for his extradition from Great Britain is withdrawn, his services in the cause of science publicly reconized and the Reinach family directed to abandon the action for 1,000,000 francs damages against him he will publish his documents compromising prominent public men.

Result of Fooling with a Rifle.

PITTSBURG, May 17.—Louis Geier, aged 9 years, was shot and fatally injured by the careless handling of a Flobert rifle in the possession of Raymond Latimer, aged 11 years. Five boys were playing in the Geier yard when the rifle was discharged, the bullet entering the back of Geier's head at the base of the skull and penetrating the brain.

Death by a Fall from a Scaffold.

CHICAGO, May 17.—While at work at the new historical building at Dearborn avenue and Ontario street, three men, Thos. Rowle, T. T. Bolt and Charles S. Paris, were precipitated from a scaffold a distance of fifty feet. Rowle was instantly killed. Bolt was seriously injured, while Paris escaped injury. Rowe leaves a family.

Another Bank Pulls Through.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 17.—After a heavy run of two days the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank commenced business today with more cash in its vaults than it had when the run started. It is expected that there will be no further trouble. The other banks did not feel the effects of the run in any way.

Meeting of the Whisky Trust.

THE DRUM.

Oh, the drum!
There is some
Intonation in thy grum
Monotony of utterance that strikes the spirit dumb,
As we hear
Through the clear
And unclouded atmosphere
Thy palpitating syllables roll in upon the ear.

There's a part
Of the art
Of thy music throbbing heart
That thrills a something in us that awakens with a start,
And in rhyme
With the chime
And exactitude of time
Goes marching on to glory to thy melody sublime.

And the guest
Of the breast
That thy rolling robs of rest
Is a patriotic spirit as a Continental dressed,
And he looms
From the glooms
Of a century of tombs,
And the blood he spilled at Lexington in living beauty blooms.

And his eyes
Wear the guise
Of a purpose pure and wise,
As the love of them is lifted to a something in the skies
That is bright
Red and white
With a blurr of starry light,
As it laughs in silken ripples to the breezes day and night.

There are deep
Hushes creep
O'er the pulses as they leap,
As thy tumult, fainter growing, on the silence falls asleep,
While the prayer
Rises there
With the sea and earth and air
As a heritage to freedom's sons and daughters everywhere.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Be Ready For the Emergency.

Good luck is desirable even when you have done your best to succeed, but remember that the most favorable circumstances or strokes of fortune are of little value unless you have prepared yourself to take advantage of them. Of what advantage would Hayne's fiery speech have been to Daniel Webster if he had not, with the instinct of genius, long before equipped himself for the assault which he repelled with such crushing energy? Had he not previously weighed and refuted in his own mind the charges of his opponent, his reply, instead of ranking among the greatest masterpieces of oratory, might have only revealed his own weakness. Thousands of men had seen the prints of a horse's hoofs in the soil before Faust discovered by them the art of printing.—William Mathews in Harper's Young People.

Old Man—That doesn't worry me. How bad it is is what I'm afraid of. —Detroit Free Press.

Everything Will Cost Money.

If any one thinks he can see the World's fair for 50 cents, he will find he has made a mistake. The water privilege, the toilet room privilege, the privilege to charge money to sit on the benches in the park and a hundred others have been granted. In many cases the fair directors have not received anything for the grants. In others the amount to be paid is so small in comparison with the lowest estimate of the profits that it would be better if the franchise had been a free gift.

A sanitary company has placed in the various buildings on the grounds 3,000 water closets and lavatories. A fee of 5 and 10 cents will be charged for the used of them.—Chicago Letter.

HEART DISEASE 30 YEARS.

GRAND ISLAND, NEB., April 8th, 1892.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

GENTLEMEN: I had been troubled with HEART DISEASE FOR THE LAST 30 YEARS, and although I was treated by able physicians and tried many remedies, I grew steadily worse until I was COMPLETELY PROSTRATED AND CONFINED TO MY BED WITHOUT ANY HOPE OF RECOVERY. I would have very bad sinking spells, when my pulse would stop beating altogether, and it was with the greatest difficulty that my circulation could be started, which would bring me back to consciousness again. While in this condition I tried your NEW HEART CURE, and began to improve from the first, and now I am able to do a good day's work for a man 68 years of age. I give DR. MILES' NEW HEART CURE all the credit for my recovery. It is over six months since I have taken any, although I keep a bottle in the house in case I should need it. I have also used your NERVE AND LIVER PILLS, and think a great deal of them. Z. AVERY.

DOINGS OF ILLINOIS SOLONS.

Over Four Months in Session and Hardly a Dozen Bills Passed.

SPRINGFIELD, May 17.—The legislature has been in session going on five months and but eight bills have reached the governor. As the latter has ordered an election June 19 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Meyer, it looks as though there would be no end to the session at all. The governor sent to the senate the nomination of Adolph Sturm to be labor commissioner vice Richter, refused to serve. The bill fixing a scale of fees for incorporation of companies passed. The bill fixing compensation of legislators at $1,000 for regular and $5 per day for special sessions was reconsidered so as to recall and amend, it being of doubtful constitutionality. The agreeing vote on a report unfavorable to a northern state normal school was reconsidered, and the bill reinstated. The house refused to return the bill fixing salaries of legislators, and the foregoing action on that bill was thereby vitiated. A resolution for a road improvement commission was referred. Ford's compulsory school bill was made special order for May 23.

In the house the bill to authorize the Chicago Jackson park commissioners to purchase the World's fair Art palace was sent to third reading. Appropriation bills passed: For the Horticultural society, $4,000 per year; county farmers' institutes, $50 per year; state reformatory, $100,000. The bill appropriating $154,000 to the University of Illinois was sent to third reading.

THE WEATHER AND THE CROPS.

Improvement Noted in All the Fields—Fruit Looking Well.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The bulletin of the weekly crop report gives the following as the situation in the states named:

Illinois—Wheat improving, oats, meadows and pastures generally good; planting in fair progress; nights too cool.

Indiana—Weather more favorable to crops and farm work; much corn planted; wheat is jointing; rye heading; oats, grass and fruit in good condition.

Michigan—Wheat, grass and clover have rapidly improved; all kinds of fruit promise well.

Wisconsin—Seeding nearly done and potato and corn planting begun; tobacco plants backward, but coming up in good shape; winter wheat and rye excellent; spring wheat fair prospects.

Iowa—Considerable progress made in plowing and corn planting and with favorable weather the bulk of the planting will be completed this week; decided improvement in grain, pastures and meadows.

A Chicago Bankrupt Missing.

CHICAGO, May 17.—B. F. Clarke, the big real estate dealer, is missing, and a host of creditors are trying to locate him. Clarke made a voluntary assignment in the County court May 1, and since that time he has not been seen in Chicago. An investigation of his business methods is being conducted by the attorneys who represent a number of creditors, and it is claimed he is short over $50,000. Clarke is one of the oldest real estate men in Chicago. He has been prominent in land deals for years and achieved considerable renown several years ago as foreman of the grand jury in the Cronin case.

The Northwestern Guaranty Company.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 17.—The Journal says that the reports spread abroad about the condition of the Northwestern Guaranty company, are infinitely worse than facts justify; that investors in all probability, will not lose a dollar, and that President Menage declares that if the company is not forced into liquidation the stockholders will also come out without loss. The security, it is claimed, is ample to pay every dollar.

Wants $50,000 from Russell Sage.

NEW YORK, May 17.—William Laidlaw, of John Bloodgood & Co., who was injured in the Arcade building by the bomb thrown by Norcross in December of 1891, will begin suit to recover $50,000 damages from Russell Sage in the supreme court. Laidlaw was in Mr. Sage's office at the time of the explosion, and he alleges that the millionaire broker pushed him between the bomb thrower and himself. His injuries are said to be permanent.

Prominent Louisville Dead Man.

LOUISVILLE, May 17.—A. V. Dupont, one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Louisville, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease. He had premonitions of the attack while engaged at his business and was taken home and physicians summoned, but he died in half an hour. Mr. Dupont was 60 years old and belonged to the family of the great powder makers of Philadelphia.

Talk of Boycotting Armour.

ST. LOUIS, May 17.—At the session of the international horseshoers' convention a resolution was introduced by a Chicago delegate asking that a boycott be declared against Armour & Co., of that city, for refusing to grant ten hours' pay for nine hours' work. After considerable discussion the resolution was referred to the grievance committee.

Kansas Official Bound Over for Libel.

TOPEKA, May 17.—Secretary of State B. S. Osborne has been bound over to the district court in the sum of $300 on the charge of libel. On the 15th of April Osborne was interviewed in a local paper in which he charged that ex-Governor Humphrey, ex-Secretary of State Higgins and other Republicans were stopping at the state penitentiary at state expense.

Minister Risley Asked to Account.

NEW YORK, May 17.—John E. Risley, the newly-appointed minister to Denmark, has been made the defendant in a suit for an accounting of his fees as joint counsel with the late Senator Joseph E. McDonald. The case grows out of the partnership of Risley and McDonald in the collection of claims awarded by the Alabama commission.

Conductors Disclaim a Strike.

TOLEDO, May 17.—At the meeting of the Order of Railway Conductors a resolution was unanimously adopted disclaiming any intention of taking advantage of World's fair traffic to embarrass the companies by a strike, and declaring their purpose to perform every duty "faithfully and honestly, if met by our employers in a spirit of fairness."

The G. O. M. in Mighty Earnest.

LONDON, May 17.—Gladstone has declined to agree to an adjournment of the house over Derby day in order to enable the members to witness the great race which will take place at the end of this month.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—The Oakland ferryboat at Bay City ran down a Whitehall boat containing five persons. All were drowned.

No Money to Execute the Geary Law Available.

CARLISLE REPORTS LACK OF FUNDS,

And the Almond-Eyed Celestial is Likely to Rest in Peace Until Congress Supplies the Needful—Alleged Unfriendliness to the Law in the Cabinet—A Case That May Cause Complicaitons with Our Northern Neighbor.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—At a cabinet meeting with a full attendance the Chinese question, as complicated by the decision of the supreme court, was discussed from every point of view, and it is understood that the conclusion reached was that the law could not be enforced for the reason that there was no money available for that purpose. The act only carries an appropriation of $100,000. Secretary Carlisle showed that not more than $35,000 of that sum remained, with some bills still unaudited to be acted upon. It was estimated that it would cost to deport all the Chinamen now in the country who have not complied with the law more than $6,000,000.

The Cabinet Against the Law.

This statement exhibited what one members of the cabinet called the utter inability of the government to give any effect to the law without further action by congress. Under the circumstances it was understood that nothing could be done and it is said that there is little, if any, probability of the federal government making any immediate effort to put the law into effect. One member of the cabinet who holds a high place and is looked upon as a man of force and strength of character, made the broad assertion after the session was over that the law was nothing short of a political scheme enacted for political effect (he said in fact something about "demagogues"), and he intimated that there had been a general hope among his associates that the court would have held it to be unconstitutional.

No Action Until Congress Meets.

It is assumed that in the ordinary course of diplomatic usage a copy of the decision of the supreme court, as soon as the majority members of the court have determined upon its exact phraseology, will be transmitted to the Chinese minister to be by him forwarded to his government. This will necessarily involve considerable delay, and congress will probably be again in session before return can be made to this communication.

THE TROUBLESOME CELESTIAL.

His Movements Promise a Clash Between Uncle Sam and Canada.

OTTAWA, May 17.—The United States authorities at Portland, Or., say that the 612 Chinese passengers brought over by the steamer Empress of India, destined for the United States, and who possess fraudulent certificates of entry, must be returned through Canada on the ground that they had been landed in Canada before being transhipped to another steamer to be taken to Portland. It appears they were simply landed at quarantine, and this fact in international law does not constitute landing or entry into a country. The Chinese were only passing through Canada. If an attempt is made by the United States authorities to land them on Canadian shores the officers will at once be arrested.

Herald on the Geary Law Opinion.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Herald says editorially regarding the decision of the constitutionality of the Geary law in the supreme court of the United States: "It can only be regarded as a national misfortune that the views of the three minority judges were not proclaimed as the judgment of the court. The law upheld is the embodiment of a Chinaphobia as fanatical as the old-time ravings of Denis Kearney on the sand lots of San Francisco."

Mothers Recommends It.

The strongest recommedation that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that article has more than ordinary merit. Here is what the Centerville, South Dakoto, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our childern. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. D. Two Stories.

The sweets of incognito for a crowned head are nothing compared with finding one of his subjects who will not recognize him.

During a summer visit to one of his castles situated in a remote province of his kingdom, the king of Denmark, accompanied by his son, had wandered some way off in the mountains. Overtaken by a storm, they sought refuge in a woodman's hut. The wife of the mountaineer was curious, and in a roundabout way tried to find out who were her visitors. Seeing this, Christian IX said, "I am the king of Denmark, and this gentleman is my son, the king of Greece."

To which the woman retorted, with a quizzical wink: "And my old man is the emperor of China! Ha! ha! ha!"—Harper's Bazar.

Crinoline In the War.

"During the war the crinoline played a practical part, as many ladies were in the habit of hiding contraband articles under their skirts and in this manner smuggling them through the lines to the soldiers," said Al Gonter of Denver at the Lindell. "I remember one instance of the kind of which I was a witness. I was a boy about 14 and with my mother was about to make a visit from Memphis to Grenada. We were detained at the guardhouse waiting for a passport for which we had an order when a richly dressed lady came in and presented a note from the commanding officer to pass her through the lines.

"She would have got through easy enough, but as she was leaving the station the band of her hoopskirt broke and it fell to the ground. The lady screamed and swooned dead away. Fastened to the skirt were a dozen pairs of fine cavalry boots, which she was endeavoring to smuggle through to Confederate soldiers. She was locked up and it was some time before friends secured her release. My mother was so badly frightened by the incident that she gave up the visit to Grenada, for she, too, had some contraband goods tied to her crinoline."—St. Louis Republic.

Ate His Boots.

The story goes that the bootmaker to Don Carlos, the son of Philip II, took him a pair of boots which were too small to be comfortable, and by the order of the angry prince they were cut to pieces, boiled and forced down the wretched fellow's throat, so that he was well nigh killed.—Exchange.

CASTORIA

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTYN, D. D., New York City. Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, Without injurious medication.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. —The South Dixon Lutherans are contemplating building a fine parsonage on the north half of their lot, corner Peoria avenue and Third street.

—A number of cellars are being excavated for residences, and still more being staked out in West Dixon on First, Second, Third and Fourth streets.

—The funeral of Richard Hoban was held this afternoon at four o'clock from the Catholic church, and was largely attended by the many friends of the young men.

—B. and Bernard Edelstein, proprietors of the Fair store, number 4, Opera Block and the Little Fair store on First street, respectively, returned home last night from Pecatonica.

—Mr. Theron Cumins, after looking over the accommodations afforded in the various localities in the World's Fair city, has engaged a suite of rooms for four months at Windsor Park.

—E. H. Brewster returned this morning from a trip through the southern part of Lee and Whiteside counties, and reports crops and farming operations generally in a much better state of advancement than has been reported.

—At the home of Miss Emma Knapp, Highland Park, last evening, there was a merry young crowd gathered to celebrate her sixteenth birthday; and a very pleasant time was spent with games and refreshments. Miss Anna Null presented her with a pair of gold bracelets, a token of regard from her friends.

—A backward spring is favorable for the developement of croakers, and some are already predicting a cessation of prosperity to our flourishing city; but John M. Julien, the indefaligable dealer in corner lots, says he doesn't propose to permit any interest in Dixon to go down except Rock River.

—Capt. Wm. S. Wood, of Co. B, 34th Ills. Regt., brother-in-law of O B. Anderson, and formerly a school teacher of Dixon, died at his home in Chicago this morning. His remains will be brought to this city tonight for interment and the funeral will be next Friday; the hour has not yet been decided on.

—Mrs. Mollie Hayden, better known to many of our readers as the daughter of Rev. G. L. S. Stuff, formerly of Dixon, is lady manager of the Family Dormitory at Windsor Park, the popular locality patronized by so many of the Dixon people who visit the World's Fair. C. A. Todd and the Cumins family speak in the highest terms of the management of the family dormitory.

—Polo is becoming alarmed at the aggressiveness of Dixon. The Polo Semi-Weekly Visitor this morning says: "Dixon is working for the Woosung trade by letting the contract for grading and stoning the road to Woosung. Can't our Commissioners get a 'move on themselves? Are we to elect farmers for Commissioners and let them sit down and drive all the trade from our town and city? It looks so."

—Dr. Law returned from Evanston and Chicago last evening. He says that in addition to the extortionate charges for food in the latter city, it is almost impossible to get a well cooked meal at any of the restaurants. He advises all who can to secure accommodations if possible at Windsor Park and go to the grounds well provided with lunch. Make the present order of things not only unpopular but unprofitable to the holders of concessions, as the only way to secure a remedy.

—Dr. O. B. Blackman will leave Saturday night for Canton, Ohio, to be in attendance at the Lutheran General Synod of the United States, which commences on the 24th inst. and continues one week. The doctor is the delagate from this, the Northern Illinois Synod. On his return home he will stop in Chicago to attend the World's Homœpathic Congress, which will last about one week; returning home for business about June 3rd.

—The common sense and business honesty of the American people was vindicated yesterday by the action of the directors of the World's Columbian Exposition in their final disposal of the matter of Sunday opening of the Fair and refunding of the niggardly appropriation of congress; the particulars of which are given in our dispatches. The valid objections to an open exhibition are met. The experiment of a closed fair on Sunday has been tried and its evils are known. Those people who wish to see the Exposition on Sunday can henceforth do so, and they will probably be no wickeder nor worse off inside than outside of the gates.

From South Dixon.

Doctor Lucius Goodyear is at home on a visit.

Mrs. Anna Brooker and daughter Dora, are spending a couple of days at Julius Lloyd's.

From Sublette.

Albert Linn, of Larned, Kansas called on a few friends last week He was in the early days, a prominent business man in our village.

Joseph Bettendorf, jr., and Paul Stephanitsch have bought the corner of the block just east of our dry goods stores and intend to erect a large store building where they will sell hardware, etc. It seems a pity to destroy those large, beautiful evergreen trees, probably the oldest one in the village, to make room for the building.

Farmers are still busy with their corn planting. Numerous showers of cold rain have hindered farm work.

From Palmyra.

Mrs. Mary Little, of Ames, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. A. Beede.

Walter Melick and wife of Lancaster, Cal., arrived in Dixon Saturday evening and is calling on friends in his old home. Walter is a Palmyra boy, and his many friends rejoice to again greet him. He has risen to the distinction of notary public and editor of the Lancaster Gazette. He will leave Tuesday for the World's Fair where he will join his brother editors at the hotel Mecca

A much respected lady, of Palmyra, was a few days ago seen coming leisurely down one of the principal streets of Dixon minus a head-covering of any description. It is not known whether or not she was trying to introduce a new movement in dress reform; but when accosted as to fashion she was trying to lead, she immediately retraced her steps to the milliner shop and returned with the missing bonnet.

The visitors to our church, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Melick, Miss Nellie Decker, Miss Julia Peacock and friend, Mrs. Mary Little and the Misses Carrie and Bertha Swartz

From Nachusa.

Albert W. Purbaugh, who died May 12 of consumption at the age of 38 years was an intelligent, sober and quiet dispositioned young man, having always lived among us, with the exception of four years in Kansas with an aunt. During his sojourn there he was religiously converted and joined the First Baptist church at Clay Centre, and united by letter with the Baptist church of Dixon upon his return, since which time he has attended, until his failing health deprived him of the privilege. During his illness of several months he bore his suffering with patience and in the blessed hope of a better life, and found great comfort in his Bible and the consolation and sympathy of his kind parents, who administered every comfort possibl. Friends who stood at his bedside tell of his peaceful, happy departure, full of songs of praise toward his heavenly Father and faith in heaven Rev. Leland, of Dixon, who had visited him during his illness, preached an excellentt funeral sermon on Sunday at the Mt. Union church, which was well filled with friends of the deceased. The remains were interred in Mt. Union cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Purbaugh are indeed grateful for the assistance given them by friends during their son's illness.

Surprises In a Small Town.

A sudden fancy, or fever rather, has taken possession of the young married men lately, causing them to appear with smooth faces, which has led to curious results. Men who have always lived here and were formerly well known have found themselves treated as strangers by their friends failing to recognize them. Two men who have never been thought to look alike are now being continually mistaken for each other. Several mustaches of many years' growth have been sacrificed to the demands of this fashion. But already some of the reformers have grown nervous, repented and started in to recover their lost whiskers.—Augusta (Me.) Journal.

JURY SYSTEM IN FRANCE.

An Australian Ballot Plan Observed While a Verdict Is Being Reached.

An assize court in France is composed of an assize judge and two assistant judges. The jury are seated in a courtroom to the right of the judge. They have no special costume, but wear their ordinary dress. Sometimes they appear in blouses. The prisoner faces the jury. They ask no direct questions, but may interrogate the prisoner or witnesses, through the judge, on any point likely to afford them information and may also demand to see all articles offered in evidence by the public prosecutor to prove the prisoner's guilt.

They hear the argument of the public prosecutor, who pleads for the indictment which he has prepared, and then those of the defense, and form a truly enlightened opinion from the depositions of the witnesses on both sides. When the trial is concluded, the judge, in the presence of the court, reads to the jury the questions which are submitted to them and reminds them of the duties which they are to perform. In the center of the room is a long table with six separate partitions or boxes on each side.

At the head of the table is a box for the foreman containing an urn. From the moment the jury enter this room they are alone. The foreman puts the questions to them, and they discuss them. The jury is usually divided into two almost equal camps. There are the indulgent ones, who answer the most incontrovertible evidence with the everlasting "What does that prove?" and there are those who even, when the crime is but ill proved, declare that "society must be rid of such people."

The foreman finds it hard to seize the opportune moment when the jury are almost agreed in their readiness or reluctance to vote one way or the other. Then he states the question anew. The jurymen seat themselves at the table, each in his box, where he cannot see what his neighbors write. One by one they rise and place their folded ballots in the urn. The form of the ballot is, "Upon my honor and my conscience I declare that," etc.—North American Review.

Those Fine Complexions.

Quilp says that he meets many pretty girls on his way to the office early in the morning—girls with bright, lovely complexions, and he has often wondered how they managed to make themselves look so fresh and blooming when they have so much work to do. He says that in looking over the columns of an exchange he has at last found out the secret. It is clear, he says, that these girls, or a great majority of them, have on rising in the morning brightened their faces with a salt bath, refreshed their complexion with "just a dash of orange water," wiped the eyes with rosewater and glycerin, used a mere "sprinkle of rich powder," and then insisted on their mother giving them an orange, a glass of hot milk and a swallow of elder water. There is apt at times to be a tinge of sarcasm in what Quilp says.—Buffalo Commercial.

A "Locoed" Cow.

I once helped to drive a cow from a loco patch to a corral. The distance was not over a mile, and yet with the help of another rider it took us 2½ hours to succeed.

The cow ran all over the place in a silly, dazed way, until we got our two horses close along each side of her, so that she could not turn easily. Her sight seemed defective. She fell into an irrigation ditch that she could easily have crossed, and we got her out with no end of trouble.

Again, coming to a fence pole lying on the ground, she stopped abruptly and commenced dancing and plunging about in front of it for some minutes. Then with a great bound she jumped over it as if it were two or three feet high.

A "locoed" horse of mine while standing quietly in the stable was seized with a spasm. It reared suddenly, threw itself backward and broke its neck before two men who were standing by could do anything to save it.—Chambers' Journal.
